General

Placement and acceptance of orders

Individual services will be carried out only by orders placed with Flughafen Dresden GmbH (hereinafter to be referred to as „airport“) in writing and duly signed.

Placed orders do not substantiate any claims for execution of individual services; orders can be accepted only under reserve of feasibility of the individual services and deliveries to be carried out.

Execution of orders

The customer or recipient of services shall confirm on the order form that the order has been duly executed.

If the execution of an order cannot be confirmed the customer shall bear costs already arisen even in the case that he is not identical to the recipient of services.

Charging

Charges are based on complete units.

In case of calculation of administrative charges a cost unit rate of 12% will be raised.

If there is stipulated an hourly rate, the period of 30 minutes has to be taken as for the minimum rate if not stated otherwise.

The charges listed for the usage of vehicles and equipment are to be understood without driver or operational staff if not stated otherwise. Assistance by airport staff shall be charged separately.

All charges listed are to be understood without VAT.

Miscellaneous

The airport reserves the right to any amendments of terms and conditions offered.

5.2.1 Regulations concerning refund of costs for services of the Airport Fire Brigade

§ 1 Scope of effectiveness

- (1) The List of Charges applies to all services carried out by the Airport Fire Brigade.
- (2) If no exemptions are made, the services of the Airport Fire Brigade have to be paid and are to be refunded to the Flughafen Dresden GmbH (thereinafter called „airport“).

§ 2 Services of the Airport Fire Brigade

Additionally to the services listed in 5.2.2 of the List of Charges, services carried out by the fire brigade are also the turning out of the Airport Fire Brigade in the case of wilful alarm, the turning out in the case of false alarms set by private fire alarm systems or by using the public telecommunication lines through providers of private fire alarm systems within the airport area.

§ 3 Composition of cost rates

- (1) The cost rates are composed of:
 - Personnel costs for the Airport Fire Brigade staff employed,
 - Hardship supplements in accordance with legal regulations,
 - Hourly rates for using vehicles of the Airport Fire Brigade as transport space for staff, equipment and accessories,
 - Rates for using equipment,
 - Costs for materials consumed,
 - Costs for disposal of waste,
 - Costs for other services carried out by the Airport Fire Brigade.
- (2) The cost accounting includes only the actual number of staff and use of equipment of the Airport Fire Brigade which was required for the action. The invoice indicates the cause and the amount of the individual costs.
- (3) Differing from the principle of section (2) the staff and facilities of the fire brigade provided in accordance with the turn-out regulations are invoiced in the case of wilful or false alarm. In these cases the fire brigade vehicles to be used are regarded as transport space according to sect. (1).

§ 4 Calculation of personnel costs

- (1) The cost calculation takes into account a head of action of the Airport Fire Brigade and the staff required for the specific task of action.
- (2) For the calculation of the costs for personnel and equipment, hourly and daily rates are applied. Fractions of hours are rounded up to half hours. If half an hour has been exceeded, the full hourly rate will be invoiced. The first hour of action starts with setting the alarm for the fire brigade. The period of action finishes with the time at which the stand-by of labour and facilities of the Airport Fire Brigade has been re-established.
- (3) The hardship supplements calculated in accordance with legal regulations are to be included in the cost accounting. These surcharges have to be paid for staffs that are exposed to actual hardship while carrying out tasks of action.

§ 5 Cost rates for using equipment

- (1) The calculation of costs for using equipment during the action of the Airport Fire Brigade takes into consideration the technical conditions of the individual devices (device life time).
- (2) The cost rates for using equipment are listed in 5.2.2 They include the demand for fuel and lubricants which might be required as well as the average rates for maintenance, service and preventive maintenance and for vehicles they additionally include the number of crew required.
- (3) The decision concerning the necessary use of equipment is in the responsibility of the head of action of the Airport Fire Brigade.
- (4) For renting equipment and accessories of the Airport Fire Brigade, hourly and daily rates respectively are applied. Each fraction of a calendar day is regarded as a full day of usage. Fuels and lubricants and demand for power are chargeable to the renting party.

§ 6 Costs for materials consumed

- (1) In the cases of a cost refund the actual costs of sale plus an administration surcharge of 10% are invoiced for consumed materials, such as filter elements, alkali cartridges, extinguishing powder, binding agents, water etc.
- (2) If special costs for the airport arise from using its fire brigade, such as travel expenses, repair costs, replacement costs in the case of uselessness or loss, these are to be invoiced additionally.

§ 7 Charges for waste disposal

The charges for waste disposal are included in the costs for consumer materials acc. to § 6, unless this has been regulated otherwise in 5.2.2.

§ 8 Charges for other services

- (1) The employment of Airport Fire Brigade staff for carrying out fire protection services is invoiced per hourly rates. The airport is responsible for deciding about the number of staff to be employed.
- (2) The charges for other services are listed in 5.2.2.

§ 9 Cost debtor

- (1) The obligation to refund costs applies to cases of dangers or damages caused culpably and towards the party reliable in cases of risk liability.
- (2) In cases of sect. (1) the refund of costs in accordance with the List of Charges is to be demanded from:
 - the party responsible, if the danger or the damage is due to a wilful act or gross negligence,
 - the owner of vehicle, if the danger or the damage has occurred during operation of track vehicles, aircraft or motor vehicles,
 - the operator, if the danger or the damage has been caused during transporting, storing or using flammable liquids or other dangerous substances.
- (3) The explanation for demanding the refund of expenses for services of the Airport Fire Brigade in cases of risk liability is sufficiently justified, if additional, objectively existing legal obligations or duties of care have not been observed at the time of action of the Airport Fire Brigade.

§ 10 Occurrence and settlement date of cost refund, joint debtors

- (1) The claim of the airport for cost refund occurs
 - when the Airport Fire Brigade has finished carrying out its services
 - when equipment and accessories rented from the Airport Fire Brigade have been returned
 - when materials consumed have been replaced and invoiced respectively
 - in the case of a proof for special costs incurred acc. to § 9, sect. 2
 - when the disposing of waste has been finished.
- (2) The settlement date for the claims is in accordance with the General Terms and Conditions of Business of the airport.
- (3) Several debtors are liable as joint debtors.

§ 11 Exemption from cost refund

- (1) A cost refund is not required for services carried out by the Airport Fire Brigade within the framework of the general duty to give assistance
- in case of fire causing a loss of property,
 - in case of public emergencies, which have been caused by natural phenomena, collapses, accidents and suchlike,
 - in case of technical assistance for rescuing people and animals from a life-threatening situation,
 - for fire prevention and preventive fire protection, except the fire brigade security service,
 - in case of actions of the fire brigade which have been declared as training or exercise,
- unless the danger or damage is due to a wilful act.
- (2) This does not affect agreements individually made.

§ 12 Liability

- (1) The Airport is not liable for injuries to persons and damages to property caused while using vehicles or equipment rented from the Airport Fire Brigade. In these cases the party is liable to pay compensation for loss and damage to vehicles and equipment to the airport that has rented or leased the vehicles and equipment.
- (2) The airport is not liable to the cost debtor for damages to property which its staff could have expected to occur necessarily when getting assistance which is to be paid for. If not the property of the debtor, but that of a third party has been damaged, the debtor exempts the airport from compensation claims by third parties within internal relations.

§ 13 Transitional and final regulations

- (1) If claims have occurred before this List of Charges took effect and if the period of payment indicated on the invoice ends after these charge regulations take effect, the cost rates having been effective so far will apply.
- (2) It is within the discretion of the airport to refrain from issuing an invoice.
- (3) The airport is entitled to adapt the regulations for cost refund and the cost refund rates from time to time and to include the appropriate cost rates for new equipment purchased by the Airport Fire Brigade. This does not affect the duty to publish.
